Fred Cinotto Serves As Dean of College

Fred Cinotto, MSC curriculum coordinator, is acting dean of the College, according to President Leon Billingsly. "The jobs had become parallel since Dean C. O. Robinson, who moved to Kansas, and Cinotto had worked closely together," Dr. Billingsly added.

Cinotto has moved to the Dean's office on second floor. He served as dean of Independence, Kansas, Community College for 24 years.

Dr. Billingsly said that the College has received several applications for the position of dean of instruction.

Chorale to Present 'Elijah' Sunday

Mendelssohn's "The Elijah" will be presented by Missouri Southern College Chorale at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the First Methodist Church, 501 West Fourth Street.

Soloists for the performance, directed by Oliver Sovereign and accompanied by Dr. Ervin Dunham, organist, are Larry Dunham, baritone, singing the part of Elijah; Larry Strong, tenor; Kathy Keithly, contralto; Judith Ardrey, Karen Porporth, and Kathy Watkins, sopranos.

Mendelssohn's "Elijah" was inspired by the Biblical account of Elijah, an Israelite prophet, and his encounter with the prophets of Baal and Ashtaroth. Elijah, the great prophet in the time of Ahab, waged perpetual war against Baal-worship. At his own request, Elijah was confronted by the priests of Baal and Ashtaroth on Mount Carmel where he called on them to make manifest the presence of their god. Upon their failure to do so, fire descended from heaven and consumed the offering Elijah had prepared, thus showing the superiority of Yaveh, Jehovah, over all other gods. The immediate result was the massacre of all idolatrous priests on the mountain.

SNEA to Sponsor Trip to Tulsa Opera

Student NEA is sponsoring their fifteenth annual trip March 12 to see the opera "Faust" in Tulsa, according to Dr. Lloyd Dryer, adviser. Any interested student should contact Dr. Dryer. Tickets cost $7, $5, $3, or $2. "Faust," by Gounod, is the story of a man who sells his soul to the devil for the pleasures of life.

Practicing their solos for the College Choir's Sunday afternoon concert are Karen Porporth, Judith Ardrey, and Kathy Watkins, sopranos; Larry Strong, tenor; and Larry Dunham, baritone, who is singing the part of Elijah. Dr. Ervin Dunham accompanies them on the organ.

Activity tickets will admit students.

How Much Can You Get for $10?

Any bystander near the registration line during enrollment probably heard frequent protests against having to pay $10 for an activity ticket they never used. Such verbal stimuli would then cue a chorus of "Yes, I only used mine twice last semester," and "That's nothing; I didn't use mine at all." Granted, some of these activity absentees had a legitimate reason for not attending the events covered by the ticket, but why did so many students discover a completely unmarred activity card at the semester's end?

Education involves so much more than the knowledge absorbed in the classroom. A well-rounded cultural background is nearly as essential in a post-graduate world as the knowledge of a curriculum. Realizing this, the administration has facilitated the students' exposure to culture by allowing our activity tickets to admit us to Community Concerts, and to all our school concerts, lectures, and dramatic events.

To provide wholesome contrast to the cultural aspect of extra-curricular activities, and to the intellectual life of the classroom, the fun and relaxation of football and basketball are free for all at home games. Fans who have followed the Lions have been treated to some very exciting games during the year.

Through funds derived from our activity fee, speakers are brought to us who otherwise would be unavailable. They have much to offer students taking advantage of the opportunity to hear them.

The four productions of the drama department may also be witnessed upon presentation of an activity ticket. Viewers of these live presentations can enjoy some of the classic pieces of literature, with this year's repertoire consisting of significant works of American, English, Hungarian, and Greek dramatists.

Of special significance is the fact that our Neophonic Orchestra is one of three in the nation, and that our Choir receives several national invitations annually. When one realizes the unique advantage involved in hearing our groups free of charge, the value of the economic activity ticket should increase.

Aside from the cultural advantages gained from the utilization of MSC activity cards is the extreme economy involved in their purchase. The compulsory $10 admits the holder to activities whose admissions total $36. This also includes the eight-dollar yearbook, not covered by the activity fee in most schools, and the college newspaper.

With adequate use, our activity ticket can extend our learning to levels beyond the specialized classroom. The student who is appreciative of the benefits of these activities will exercise the opportunity offered and experience new insights.

Trustee Donates Car to College

Gene Taylor, member of the Board of Trustees and treasurer of the Board of Regents of the College, loaned a new station wagon to the College for its use. The automobile bears the name of Missouri Southern College on its doors. The car will be replaced each year by a new model from Taylor's automobile agency, according to Dr. Leon Billingsly.

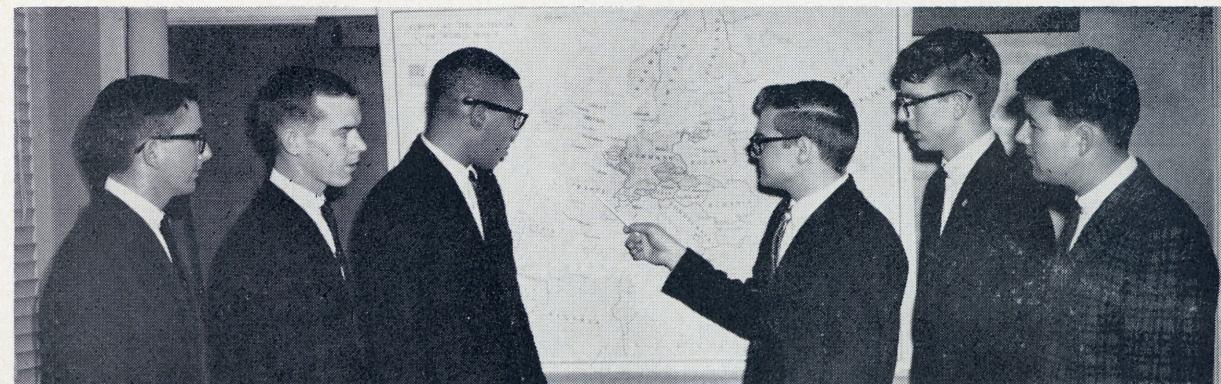

The car will be used by College administrators, faculty, and organizations. President Billingsly said that the College needs about four such cars for the overall use of the College. He added that "the eyes of the public" will see the cars with the new names and people will become more familiar with Missouri Southern and its activities.

The Stage Band and the Neophonic Orchestra of Missouri Southern College will play for the national convention of the American Association of Junior Colleges, Wednesday, March 2, at the Chase Park Plaza Hotel in St. Louis.

Merrill Ellis, who left the JJC music department three years ago, will present one of the programs on the Fine Arts Festival of Kansas State College at 1:30 p.m. March 10 in McCray Auditorium. According to the Pittsburgh program, "The productive midwestern composer . . . will report on recent explorations in musical compositions, both independently and with live musicians." Ellis is now Assistant Professor of Composition and Director of the Electronics Laboratory at North Texas State University.

Miss Joy Strobheen, World University Service representative visiting here, keynoted the week's activities last Monday with a talk explaining the functions of the organization.

Mrs. Julie Hughes made a trip with her husband to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and Atlantic City, New Jersey. While her husband attended meetings of the American Association of School Administrators, Mrs. Hughes attended meetings on new ideas for the small college.

Circle K members will attend the district Circle K convention at Mickey Mantle's Holiday Inn.

State Library Offers Library Internships To College Students

The Missouri State Library has announced that 10 internships of $250 a month are available to qualified college sophomores and juniors to work in public libraries in Missouri during the summer of 1966.

The purpose of the internships is to give students experience in library work and perhaps interest them in becoming librarians, according to Miss Syd Shinn, Public Library Consultant.

Recommendation blanks are available in the registrar's office.

Robert Jordan Receives Grant

Robert Jordan received an $800 grant from the Jane Addams Peace Association, Inc., February 1. Under the terms of the grant, he will work in conjunction with the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom at their headquarters in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, throughout the summer.

He will edit the organization's magazine "Four Lights" as well as attend meetings of the WILPF.

The Jane Addams Peace Association, Inc., was formed by descendants of Jane Addams. The Women's International League for Peace and Freedom is an affiliated company with branch offices.

Jordan is a member of the Student Senate, president of CCUN, and a delegate to the Midwest Model United Nations.

Student Remarks Teachers Abhor

Did the class do anything Friday? Or, did I miss anything yesterday?

I made an appointment with the dentist (or doctor) because I didn't think we would do anything in class.

You don't care if I don't turn my paper in, do you? My little sister is sick.

We didn't do it this way in high school.

What did you do yesterday, anything important?

That paper you assigned (six weeks ago) I didn't have today because I have a physics test.

If I don't have an exam on Monday, do I have to come to school? Well, what are we to do with our time, if we don't have an exam?

On the exams, do we have to worry about spellin'?

Do you want me to know these terms, definitions, etc.?

Do we have to go to the library to look this up?

Will our exam be long?

I don't have a pencil. I didn't know we were going to write.

Engineers' Club Presents Awards; Receives Charter

Floyd M. Drummond, J-2 projects manager for NASA, was the guest speaker February 17 at the Engineers' Club banquet. Drummond discussed the Apollo moon shot and the moon race. President Leon Billingsly discussed the "Progress of the New MSC Campus."

Larry Munn, sophomore, was presented the club sponsorship by Dean Fred Cinotto. The stipend of $200 is payable in September after the student has enrolled in college. Munn also won the physics award, a "Handbook of Chemistry and Physics" which was presented by Miss Martha McCormick, sponsor.

Robert Brown, freshman, won the mathematics award, "Mathematical Tables from the Handbook of Chemistry and Physics." Miss McCormick also presented the math award.

Lynn Lawson who won the sign project contest received five dollars and the right to supervise the actual construction of the sign of the new campus to be constructed at Range Line and Newman roads. Vernon Lawson, professional engineer, made the award.

Emmet Green, professional engineer, presented the National Society of Professional Engineers Charter to the MSC club. It is one of the first in the state, according to Joe Hughlett, president of the club which will be known to NSPE as the Delta Student Chapter NSPE.

15 Years Ago

Phi Theta Kappa was organized. Larry Dunham, now an English teacher, was a charter member, and also served as president of the sophomore class.

The football team sported a six-one record, and the basketball team recorded three-seven.

New courses offered in the spring semester of 1950-51 were slide rule and applied psychology.

Harold Zabsky served as president of the Student Council.

Staff members at the college then who are here now were V. L. Anderson, Arthur Boles, Dr. Lloyd Dryer, Mrs. Loretta Frazier, Harry Gockel, Miss Cleetis Headlee, Miss Martha McCormick, Miss Margaret Mitchell, Miss Eula Ratekin, Miss Lela Smith, Oliver Sovereign, Mrs. Lillian Spangler, and Miss Dorothy Stone.

Sixty-nine graduated from Joplin Junior College in the spring.

First JJC Dean of Women Succumbs

Miss Edna C. Drummond, first Joplin Junior College Dean of Women, died February 9, at Bates Memorial Hospital in Bentonville, Arkansas.

Miss Drummond became part of the JJC faculty when the college was started in 1937. She and Dean H. E. Blaine organized the Student Senate which she sponsored for several years, and it was under her leadership that the traditional faculty reception for sophomores and their families was started.

Besides teaching biology courses at the College, Miss Drummond taught chemistry, anatomy, and physiology to nurses at St. John's Hospital during World War II. For her work, she was awarded special recognition by the United States government at the close of the war.

At the time of her retirement in 1955, Dean H. E. Blaine, who had already retired, said of Miss Drummond: "She has been a wonderful teacher, and as Dean of Women, she helped start the Junior College."

The former instructor was a member of Kappa Delta Pi and Delta Kappa Gamma, international honorary teachers organization. She was a charter member of GQ Chapter of P.E.O. Sisterhood in Joplin, a member of the American Association of University Women, and the First Baptist Church of Bentonville.

Miss Drummond received her B.S. and M.A. degrees from Peabody College in Nashville, Tennessee, majoring in biology.

Surviving are two sisters, Miss Mamie Drummond, Bentonville, and Mrs. Jean Boyle, Indianapolis, Indiana.

Burial was in Bentonville cemetery.

Many of Miss Drummond's former students and friends have expressed a desire to establish a memorial in her memory in the form of a grant to an outstanding student in the biological sciences. If you would like to know more about this memorial or contribute to it, contact Miss Martha McCormick or Miss Lela Smith, Missouri Southern College.

Cardinals Fly By Lions 97-75

Labette County College defeated the Missouri Southern Lions, 97-75, February 18 at Parsons.

The Cardinals were held to a two-point lead during the first half and part of the second. However, the Cardinals pulled away to a 22-point lead in the closing minutes of the second half.

Following the game, Coach Landrith said: "We played a fine game until late in the second half. The boys seemed to tire out and then made several mistakes. We shot for a good percentage most of the game, but we hit a cold spell and they started to pull away from us."

Leading performers for the Lions were Harry Reaves with 21 points on nine field goals and three charities, Wilson Lounis with 17, and Doug Claxton with 13.

The Cardinals, defending Kansas Juco Conference champions, were paced by freshman Charles McNeal who rimmed 31 points on 14 field goals and three free throws. James Bash added 17 points for the Cardinals.

With this game, Labette County is now 9-11, and Missouri Southern is 6-14 overall with one game remaining — an Interstate Conference test with Kansas City Juco tonight at Memorial Hall.

Cagers Close Season Tonight In Home Game

Missouri Southern Lions close out their season tonight in an Interstate Conference tilt against rival Kansas City Junior College 7:30 in Memorial Hall.

The Blue Devils sport a 9-2 conference log while the Lions are 6-5.

"We've got to have this game to capture third place. If we lose, third place will be a three-way tie," said Coach Doug Landrith.

Fresh from victories against Fairbury and Haskell, the Lions attribute their wins to an "overall team effort and our second half surges," Landrith said recently. "The boys are looking forward to tonight's game for it is going to be a grudge battle," he added.

Probable starters tonight for MSC are Ron Rosewicz, 6-5 center; Harry Reeves, 5-11 guard; Alan Toler, 5-10 guard; Wilson Lounis, 5-11 forward; and Doug Claxton, 6-3 forward.

Probable starters for Kansas City are James Keaton, center; Gerald Arbogast, guard; Jewell West, guard; Curtis Long, forward; and Ken Clauder, forward.

Landrith said, "The Kansas City cagers have a height advantage but I believe we will control the boards."

In a previous tussle with the Blue Devils at Kansas City December 14, the Lions dropped an 87-67 decision.

Dogs Bite Lions In Interstate Tussle

Led by the 29-point scoring performance of sophomore Marty Allen, the Highland Junior College Scotties romped over the Lions 87 to 73 in an Interstate Conference tussle February 3, at Memorial Hall in Joplin.

Holding an 18-point lead at one time in the game, the Scotties picked up their twentieth win of the season.

In the second half, after an intermission deficit of 11 points, the Lions pulled to within four points before the Scotties got moving again.

Point honors for the Lions were shared by Harry Reaves and Alan Toler with 15 each.

Phil Wiland crowns Trinket Plumb 1966 Basketball Sweetheart. Attendants were Sandy Iman, Linda Grainger, Cindy Moss, and Vicki Patterson.

Lions Trim Indians For Fifth Victory

MSC cagers evened their Interstate Conference record with a 93 to 81 victory over Haskell Institute February 11, at Memorial Hall.

Although trailing at the half 41 to 40, the Lions stormed back in the third and fourth stanzas to win their fifth conference game of the season.

Harry Reaves, Wilson Lounis and Ron Rosewicz carried the scoring lead for the Lions. Reaves hit 24, Lounis canned 23, and Rosewicz chipped in 20.

Haskell's Al Waters took game honors with 28 points.

The first half was a seesaw affair with the lead changing hands a total of 17 times. Again the first few minutes of the second half provided plenty of thrills for the crowd as both teams battled to get the lead and hold it. With 14 minutes and 30 seconds to go, the Lions took the lead for the last time.

Missouri Southern now has a 5-13 overall record, while Haskell sports a 7-10 season.
